

My Librarian Is a Camel:
How Books Are Brought to Children Around the World
(an inquiry into values and beliefs in many cultures)

By Margriet Ruurs

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

Please fill in the chart, showing and noting four different countries and how children in those countries receive library books:

Country:	How do children receive their books? (Ex. by Camel)

Why do you think that people around the world work so hard to make sure that boys and girls have books to read? (Please answer by writing a complete sentence.)